A Business Organization

The Ireland-U.S. Council

BUSINESS DIRECTORY
2009

The Comprehensive Business Information Source on the U.S.-Ireland Transatlantic Connection

The Ireland-U.S. Council is again pleased to publish a 2009 Business Directory later this year that will include a comprehensive database of those engaged in Ireland-U.S. business and economic activity.

The directory will provide detailed information on every entity that is part of the broad and durable canvas on which the business relationships between America and Ireland have been shaped.

From investment to trade and commerce to tourism, this directory will include details on corporations and organizations, every partnership and foundation engaged in the transatlantic business connection between America and the island of Ireland.

Each listing will provide detailed information including valuable personnel and contact data and, where available, thumbnail project information on the subject's transatlantic business profile.

The directory will be produced in a handsome zippered leather portfolio and will include a CD of the database, the printed database listing and other elements of Council-related materials. The product would also include password-encrypted online capability to access the directory's information resources.

This never-before-available resource will provide a comprehensive and valuable research engine for those engaged in trade, finance, industry and the tourism sectors. It will be a strong new tool for those leaders in the planning, marketing, business, investment and legal arenas of commerce and industry on both sides of the ocean.

The Council's new directory will offer a splendid platform for corporations to advertise their presence in this fast-growing, leading-edge bilateral economic nirvana.

The directory, in its comprehensive and detailed coverage of this unique and discrete universe, will shape a dynamic and powerful overview of the full breadth of the economic relationships between Ireland and the United States. Every company and organization that forms part of the fabric of these connections from both sides of the Atlantic will be covered.

Get involved in this one of a kind opportunity today and be a part of the growing trans-atlantic business community.
